Subject: GUIDELINES ON THE DELIVERY OF TEACHING INSTRUCTION IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF EXPANDED LIMITED FACE-TO-FACE CLASSES

Date: March 10, 2022

1. In response to the findings and observations gathered during the monitoring on the opening of limited Face-to-Face, this Office through the Curriculum Implementation Division (CID) stipulates guidelines on the delivery of teaching instruction as the expanded limited face-to-face classes is implemented this School Year 2021-2022 and beyond whenever necessary.
2. To ensure that the learning of the students in the limited in-person classes will be maximized as well as the needs of the students who are in the Modular Distance Learning will be catered appropriately, all teaching and teaching-related personnel are enjoined to observe specific guidelines as stated in Enclosure No. 1 of this Memorandum.
3. The Education Program Supervisors and the Public Schools District Supervisors are directed to conduct intensive monitoring of all schools as well as classroom supervision in order to render technical assistance when necessary. A specific monitoring tool for curriculum delivery is prescribed. (Annex 1)
4. On the other hand, the teachers and the school heads are urged to report or share relevant practices and methods that resulted to better learning delivery which may be suggested as benchmarks for other schools.
5. To shed light to some possible queries and issues regarding the guidelines, a virtual meeting shall be conducted at 2:00 -4:00 PM in the specified dates below. The meeting link will be sent via official Group Chats of the school heads and teachers.
 - DLC 1, 2 & 3 – March 14, 2022 * DLC 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 & 10 – March 15, 2022
6. Participants of this meeting are EPSs, PSDSs, School Heads, Master teachers, Department Heads and Grade level Chairmen. All schools are instructed to hold a meeting to all teachers after the said virtual conference.
