DIVISION ADVISORY
No. 328, s. 2023

LEARNING MODALITY FOR THE REMAINING DAYS
OF THE SCHOOL YEAR 2022-2023

To: All Public Schools District Supervisors
All Public Elementary & Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

1. In reference to Division Memorandum No. 323, s.2023, titled "Learning Modality on the Onset of Rainy Season" dated June 5, 2023 and in consideration with the End of School Year (EOSY) related activities such as but not limited to conduct of examinations, preparations of school forms and other documentary requirements, and moving-up or graduation ceremonies/activities, this Office hereby advises all schools to conduct normal face-to-face or in-person classes for the remaining days of the School Year 2022-2023 effective immediately.
2. This aims to address the time element needed in order to comply the necessary requirements for the end of school year and other related activities.
3. In connection with the above-mentioned statements, all Public Schools District Supervisors must monitor the compliance of all schools under his/her area of responsibility and report to the division office through the SGOD Chief for school operations concerns and the CID Chief for curriculum matters.
4. Immediate dissemination of and compliance with this Memorandum are desired.
