OPLAN KALUSUGAN SA DEPED PROGRAM IMPLEMENTATION REVIEW

1. Oplan Kalusugan sa DepEd (OKD) is a convergence of DepEd's School Health and Nutrition Programs. It comprises of the six flagship programs namely, School Based Feeding Program (SBFP), Wash in Schools Program (WiNS), Adolescent Reproductive Health Program (ARH), National Drug Education Program (NDEP), School Mental Health Program (SMHP) and Medical, Dental, Nursing Services (MDNS).
2. This program implementation review (PIR) will provide a venue for reporting of program accomplishments and sharing of good practices in the implementation of OKD.
3. The specific objectives of the activity are:
 - a. Program coordinators/focal persons present their accomplishment for their respective program for SY 2022-2023
 - b. Presentation of issues and challenges encountered in the implementation of the program and its possible solutions
 - c. Program coordinators/focal persons present their plans of implementation for SY 2023-2024.
4. This PIR will be conducted on October 30-31, 2023 with lunch of day 1 as the first meal and with breakfast of day 2 as last meal. This will be a live-in activity at a venue to be announced.
5. Expenses related to this activity shall be charged to Program Support Funds for the implementation of OK sa DepEd (SARO OSEC-8-22-1632)
6. For your information, guidance and compliance.
